9:15 a.m.
Neenah Public Library

Present: Chair Pat Lowney and committee members Susan Antonneau and Joshua Kutney.
Excused: Kevin Myska and Bob Suess. Also Present: Lori Duclon, Winnebago County Health Department, Assistant Planner Carol Kasimor, and Bill Bracken, Learning in Retirement President.

A quorum was not present, no action was taken.

Public Appearances:

Lori Duclon reviewed upcoming classes and opportunities through the Y/Menasha Senior Center and the Winnebago County Health Department, and reminded everyone to receive the flu vaccine.

Discussion of UW-O Learning in Retirement (LIR):

Bill Bracken, President of LIR, discussed the organization, which is based at UW-Oshkosh and has been in existence for 23 years. It is a member-driven organization founded to keep minds active through educational courses, tours, and social groups. There are currently 284 members, and 50 – 60 programs are offered each spring and fall. The annual membership fee is $100. Efforts are being undertaken to offer scholarships. Only tours, meals and special events require an additional fee. Programs are offered in Oshkosh and will now be offered in northern Winnebago County.

Announcements and future agenda items:

Possible fall 2019 workshops regarding consumer scams and law enforcement.

Discussion will take place at a future meeting regarding hearing loop/t-coil systems in City Hall.

Adjournment: The meeting was adjourned at 10:15 a.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Carol Kasimor, Assistant Planner
