Amy Moorefield	Excused	Carol Kasimor, Staff	X

Also present: Nancy Hoover, and Sara Laabs, Neenah.

Public Appearances: Sara Laabs provided information about 501 E. Wisconsin Avenue, currently owned by Nancy Hoover. Ms. Hoover discussed her interest in the history of her home, which was built in 1925 by Henry Krueger, the son of William Krueger, founder of Krueger Hardware. Commissioner Flo Bruno will consult with her regarding options for recognition of the home and its history. Chair Scott Weber expressed the Commission's appreciation for Ms. Hoover's interest and effort in her home and discussion with commissioners.

Approval of minutes of the November 12, 2025 meeting:

MSC Bruno, Klatt, the minutes of the November 12, 2025 meeting were approved as distributed.

Update on Kimberly Point Park Lighthouse preservation project:

Kasimor updated commissioners on discussions with the Parks and Recreation Department and the Wisconsin Historical Society regarding the lighthouse preservation project. The department will be providing information to WHS regarding the need for the repairs and the materials proposed to be used. Because the lighthouse is a designated local landmark and the project requires building permits, final proposed plans will be submitted to the Landmarks Commission for its review.

Discussion of 2026 Commission activities:

Commissioners discussed activities to be undertaken this year after the completion of the landmark brochure, including website updates, educational opportunities and recognition of historic properties and districts.

Announcements and future agenda items:

Website information

Potential historic district opportunities

Adjournment: MSC Klatt, Bruno, the meeting was adjourned at 6:30 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Carol Kasimor, Assistant Planner
