Also Present: Mayor Jane Lang, and Flo Bruno, 1002 E. Forest Avenue.

A quorum was not present, no action was taken.

Public Appearances: Flo Bruno, 1002 E. Forest Avenue, discussed her property, the Bacon-Johnson House, and its history. The home was built in 1901, with an addition dating to 1919. The style of the home is an arts and crafts house with bungalow and Georgian Revival references. The home was built for Elizabeth Bacon by her daughter Isabel (Mrs. Charles Robinson Smith.)

Ms. Bruno would like to nominate her property to the local, State and National Registers of Historic Places because of the notable persons associated with the property, and to honor and protect the property. A Wisconsin Historical Society contact will be provided to her to assist in the preparation of register applications. Landmarks Commissioners were very pleased to learn of Mr. and Mrs. Bruno's efforts and look forward to working together on the project.

Discuss education and information activities:

Commissioners discussed 150th anniversary events including the walking tour, and the list of properties built in 1873 or earlier being developed.

Discussion demolition and building permit reviews:

There were no reviews requested.

Approval of expenditures:

No expenditures.

Announcements and future agenda items:

Mayor Lang reported on the 150th anniversary celebration event to be held on March 13th at noon at City Hall.

Jim Taylor reported that the Inter-tribal Pow Wow was scheduled for Saturday, September 16 at 2:00 p.m., to allow for transition of the park from Farmers Market to Pow Wow.

Adjournment: The meeting was adjourned at 12:45 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Carol Kasimor, Assistant Planner
