

Minutes of the Sustainable Neenah Committee
Wednesday, March 26, 2025
5:30 P.M.
Hauser Committee Room, City Administration Building and Microsoft Teams

Present: Committee Co-Chair Carol Kasimor and Committee members Becky Heidke-Kwiatkowski and Kristen Sandvick. ALSO PRESENT: Flo Bruno and Frank Cuthbert, Neenah.

A quorum was not present, no action was taken.

Public Appearances: Flo Bruno and Frank Cuthbert introduced themselves as candidates in the 1st and 3rd aldermanic districts.

Discussion of sustainability plan update:

Follow-up on potential farmers market presentations for this summer: Wild Ones may be interested in collaborating on a presentation on native plants and Fox/Wolf Watershed Alliance has been contacted regarding a stormwater presentation. Becky contacted the Neenah High School Eco Club advisor, who will follow up on potential collaborations between the club and the SNC.

Flo Bruno reported that volunteers will take part in the area-wide cleanup near and in the water around Doty Island on May 3, 2025. Registration is at <https://fwwa.org/what-we-do/trash-free-waters/cleanup/>. Frank Cuthbert reported that plans are being made by the Neenah Parks and Recreation Commission for temporary grazing by sheep to reduce non-native plants in the Carpenter Preserve.

There was discussion about recycling in the City, and possible future education and survey efforts.
